INTRODUCTION

The Fu-chung Hydro Power Plant (Kuei-shih) is located 7.9 nautical miles north of Chung-shan on the Lin-shui (Stream).

BASIC DESCRIPTION

The number of turbogenerators and transformers at this consolidated hydro-power plant cannot be determined due to the small scale of the photography.

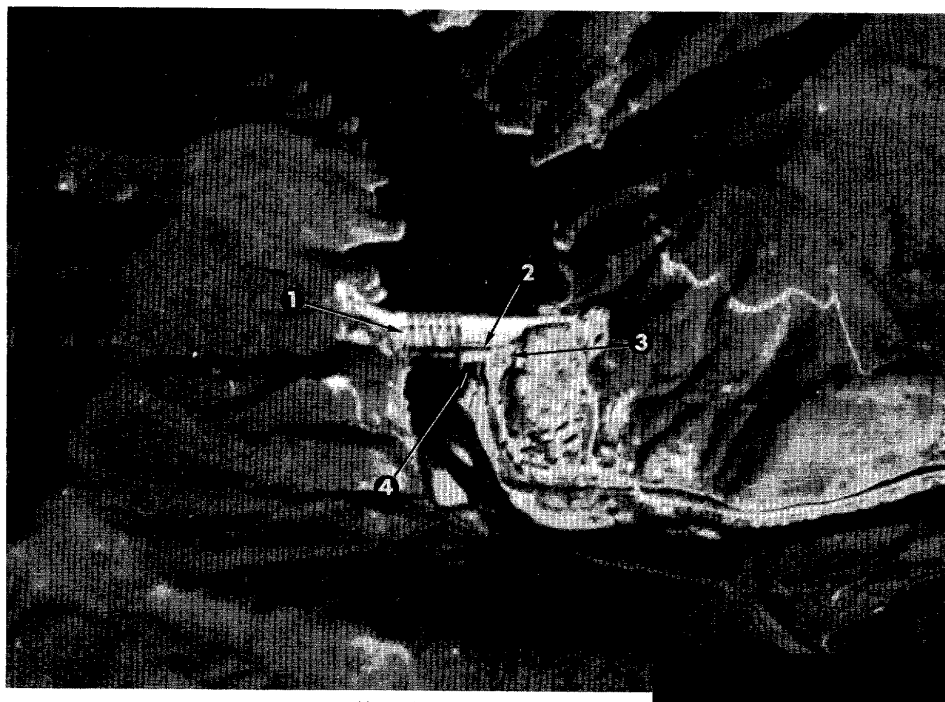

Very little turbulence was evident in the tailrace or below the spillways on the only available coverage since the referenced report. This plant appears to be complete and there has been no construction since [REDACTED] the date of the latest photography used in the referenced report.
